

Long Lake Hounds Hunter Trials
Berryhill Farm, Watertown, Minnesota
Saturday, September 19 (Rain date, Sunday, October 20)

What is a hunter trial?

All classes are held in the open, over fences & terrain similar to that found in the hunting field. Horses ride a prescribed course. There are classes for teams of two riders and three riders. The Handy Hunter class may require opening a gate or putting on a raincoat. There are classes for Juniors (age 21 and below), Adults and Pony Club members. Champion-ships are awarded in all divisions. Dress is black coat and stock tie.

CLASSES:

- 1.) Warm-up – Open to all
- 2.) Pony Club Class-split between D & C riders
- 3.) Senior Hunter
- 4.) Junior Hunter
- 5.) Pairs – Two riders jumping abreast over select fences
- 6.) Family Class (No entry fee)
- 7.) Senior Handy Hunter
- 8.) Junior Handy Hunter
- 9.) Teams –Three riders jumping abreast over select fences
- 10.) Foxhunter's Class

Entry fee is $25 per class before the day of the event and $30 the day of the event.

There will be a schooling day on Friday, September 18 from Noon to 4 PM. All rounds are $25 per horse & rider.

Please contact Cindy Piper at (952) 476-1045 repip2@aol.com for more information and an entry form.