2010 MEMBERSHIP DUES AND PATRONAGE LEVELS

Capping Fees: $40.00 – Cubbing Season $60.00 – Formal Season

- A limit of three caps per season
- All dues include a sustaining membership to the Master's of Foxhounds of America and a subscription to COVERTSIDE.

PROVISIONAL $1,450

Members are considered Provisional Members for their first year. In their second year they will begin to pay the Initiation Fee ($1,000) which may be paid $500 per year in years #2 and #3.

INITIATION FEE $1,000

An initiation fee is required of all new family and individual members. The fee may be paid over a period of one or two years.

FAMILY $1,950

All immediate members of one family may hunt until they are 21 years old or at the discretion of the Masters.

INDIVIDUAL $1,450

One person may hunt. An individual may cap up to three times per year at $40/$60 each, but thereafter must become a member. Capping fees paid will be deducted from dues. * No MFHA.*

CUBBING MEMBER $500

New in 2008 is an Introduction Membership to hunt during the cubbing season (July & August). If someone wishes to continue hunting during formal season, the fee is applied to the cost of an Individual Membership. This only applies to the first year of membership.

JUNIOR RIDER $200

Until they are 18 years of age, junior riders may hunt free for their first year, thereafter rider must become a member.

YOUNG RIDER $500

Between 18 and 26 years of age, young riders may cap up to three times per year at $40/$60 each, thereafter rider must become a member. In their 27th year they will be assessed the Initiation Fee, payable over one, two or three years.

SOCIAL MEMBERSHIP $250

This is a non-riding membership.

DUES ARE PAYABLE BY JULY 7th (Cubbing opens)
